ENGLISH

with

Games and Activities

with DIGITAL resources 2

Level A2 - B1

English with Games and Activities 2, in both digital and paper format, is aimed at learners who are studying English as a foreign language. The functional communicative approach helps learners to gradually acquire vocabulary for everyday use.

Each unit introduces approximately 20 words using pictures and audio recordings. The vocabulary is contextualised in a dialogue, then practised in graded games and activities.

The solutions in the appendix encourage self-learning.

This book is part of the series English with Games and Activities. There are 3 levels: Book 1: A1-A2 – Book 2: A2-B1 – Book 3: B1-B2.

2 Listen to the conversation.

Jenny: Hi David! Where are you going?
David: I'm going home for a rest... what about you Jenny?

Jenny: I'm going to the gym! I play basketball you know.

David: Great, I like team sports! I know everything about basketball... and also football, volleyball...

Jenny: Really?

David: Yes! I watch sport all the time on television!

Jenny: I do a lot of sport. I even go horse riding at the weekend.

David: I watch sport on television... cycling, motor racing, swimming, skiing...

Jenny: Do you only watch sport on television?

David: No, of course not! I go to rugby matches and water polo games. I prefer to see them live.

Jenny: I meant do you actually participate in anything yourself? Gymnastics or running for example.

David: Of course! I take part in a lot of football matches.

Jenny: I didn't know that! So you're not as lazy as I thought!

David: Certainly not!

Jenny: Do you often win?

David: What do you mean? I'm not a football player. I'm the referee!
